

Public Relations and Social Media Strategy Proposal

Monica Vendituoli, Communications Consultant, MAV Media and Messaging

Prepared for a startup wealth management firm, December 2022

Client anonymized. A real proposal I wrote and won. The firm's name has been replaced with [Client] throughout. The retainer tiers are shown with their deliverables but without the dollar figures. Everything else, including the target publication lists, the pitching calendar and the process steps, is unchanged.

Project goals

Media relations

- Style guide. Create a style guide for written messaging to promote consistency across pitches in tone, presentation and substance.
 - Determine media spokespeople and have them fill out a questionnaire
 - Train media spokespeople
 - Set up HARO and Qwoted accounts to assist with media coverage
- Media mentions. Conduct proactive media pitching to help [Client] receive media mentions each month through four focuses.
 - Consumer and local publications. Educate Millennials and Gen Zers on wealth management and build [Client]'s brand as a fast growing, exciting wealth management firm
 - Finance industry publications. Establish [Client] as a leading institution in the wealth management space
 - Sustainability and ESG focused publications. Build [Client]'s brand as a leader in sustainability investing
 - Cryptocurrency publications. Build [Client]'s brand as a leader in cryptocurrency investing
- Speaker opportunities. Find at least one speaking opportunity per quarter for [Client] leaders and assist with preparation for each.
- Award opportunities. Help [Client] win at least one award per quarter, national, specialized or local, through award research and entry preparation.

Social media management

- Style guide. Create a style guide for messaging to promote consistency across social media channels in tone, presentation and substance.
- Channel supervision. Choose a social media management system to monitor posts across LinkedIn, Instagram and TikTok.
 - Create a monthly content calendar for posts across all three channels
 - Create monthly analytics reports on post performance across all three channels

- Provide feedback on trending content and post comments

Media coverage process steps

Pitching themes

- I create a list of pitching themes based on current events and possible product launches for the next month and send it to the [Client] team by the 15th of each month.
- [Client] reviews and confirms by the 20th of each month.
- I create pitches associated with each theme for [Client]'s review by the 25th of each month.

Breaking news and ad hoc opportunities

- When an opportunity comes up, [Client] and I align on relevance.
- Once I finalize the copy, I circle back to the cofounders for approval of the final, reporter facing words.
